VERIFIED COMPLAINT SEEKING DECLARATORY AND
INJUNCTIVE RELIEF PURSUANT TO 11 U.S.C. §§ 105 AND 362
OR A PRELIMINARY INJUNCTION PURSUANT TO RULE 7065
OF THE FEDERAL RULES OF BANKRUPTCY PROCEDURE

The Diocese of Rochester (the “Diocese”), for its Verified Complaint for Declaratory and Injunctive Relief, states as follows:

SUMMARY OF THE ACTION

On March 19, 2020, the Court entered an Agreed Stipulation and Order Pursuant to 11 U.S.C. §105(a) Staying Continued Prosecution of Certain Lawsuits [BK Docket No. 452] (the “Stipulation and Order”) which provides for a consensual standstill of litigation in state court in hundreds of cases filed against non-debtor parishes, schools and other Catholic ministry entities and institutions within the geographical territory of the Diocese (the “Additional Stay Parties”)² which assert claims arising from or related to alleged child sexual abuse and which could negatively impact upon the Diocese’s ability to successfully reorganize (collectively, the “CVA Cases”)³ to enable the parties to concentrate their efforts on achieving a global settlement of all abuse claims against the Diocese and the Additional Stay Parties through the Diocese’s chapter 11 plan. The Stipulation and Order has been extended through consent of the Diocese and the official committee of unsecured creditors (the “Committee”) eleven times over the course of this Chapter 11 Case [BK Docket Nos. 544, 638, 773, 880, 915, 971, 1132, 1236, 1344, 1413, and 1421]. As of the commencement of this action, the Diocese has requested that the Stipulation and Order be further extended, however the Committee has refused to consent to a further stay of litigation against the Additional Stay Parties.

The Diocese commenced this adversary proceeding seeking entry of one or more orders, pursuant to 11 U.S.C. §§ 105 and 362 and Rule 7065 of the Federal Rules of Bankruptcy Procedure (the “Bankruptcy Rules”), enjoining the continued prosecution of the CVA Cases against the Additional Stay Parties. Through this adversary proceeding, the Diocese seeks to continue the relief previously achieved on a consensual basis via the Stipulation and Order to avoid the negative consequences that litigation of the CVA Cases in state court would have upon the Diocese’s ability to successfully reorganize. This action has been commenced solely because of the Committee’s refusal to agree to extend the Stipulation and Order while negotiations and mediation in this Chapter 11 Case are ongoing.

² The Additional Stay Parties include, without limitation, those non-debtor Catholic entities set forth on the attached Exhibit B.

³ The CVA Cases include, without limitation, those actions set forth on the attached Exhibit A.

The Diocese seeks to stay or otherwise enjoin the continued prosecution of the CVA Cases to: (i) to avoid the depletion of estate assets; (ii) avoid potential collateral estoppel issues which would force the Diocese's participation in the CVA Cases; (iii) prevent the distraction of key personnel from the critical task of reorganizing the Diocese's estate and (iv) preserve an environment in which all parties in interest can collectively engage in settlement negotiations regarding a plan of reorganization to address abuse-related liabilities of the Diocese, as well as the Additional Stay Parties. The Diocese believes that pursuit of a global resolution via a chapter 11 plan is the most expedient and effective process to achieve a fair and equitable resolution of all abuse claims against the Diocese and the Additional Stay Parties. Absent an order enjoining the prosecution of the CVA Cases, the Diocese, its estate, and creditors will suffer real and substantial harm.

JURISDICTION AND VENUE

1. This Court has jurisdiction over this matter pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 157 and 1334.
2. This is a core proceeding pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 157(b)(2)(A), (G) and (O). To the extent the Court may determine that this proceeding is not within its core jurisdiction, the Diocese submits that it is clearly within the Court's "related to" jurisdiction pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 157(c). The Diocese confirms its consent to the entry of a final order or judgment by this Court in connection with this proceeding if it is determined that the Court, absent consent of the parties, cannot enter final orders or judgments in connection herewith consistent with Article III of the United States Constitution.
3. Venue of this proceeding in the Western District of New York is proper pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 1408 and 1409.

4. This action is brought in accordance with Rule 7001 of the Bankruptcy Rules. There exists a substantial controversy between the Diocese and the CVA Claimants of sufficient immediacy and reality to warrant the relief requested.

THE PARTIES

A. The Diocese

5. On September 12, 2019 (the “Petition Date”), the Diocese filed a voluntary petition for relief under chapter 11 of title 11 of the United States Code (11 U.S.C. §§ 101 et seq., the “Bankruptcy Code”) with the United States Bankruptcy Court for the Western District of New York (the “Court”), commencing the Diocese’s chapter 11 case (the “Chapter 11 Case”). The Diocese continues to operate its business and manage its properties as a debtor in possession pursuant to sections 1107(a) and 1108 of the Bankruptcy Code.

B. CVA Claimants

6. The CVA Claimants, who are defendants in this action, are plaintiffs in their respective CVA Cases.

7. Each CVA Claimant is identified in the column titled “CVA Claimant(s)” in the spreadsheet attached as Exhibit A hereto. In order to protect the anonymity of the CVA Claimants, Exhibit A was filed on the docket in redacted form, containing no personally identifiable information. Contemporaneously herewith, the Diocese has filed a motion seeking authority to file the unredacted Exhibit A under seal with the Court.

FACTUAL BACKGROUND

A. The Structure of the Catholic Church

8. The Catholic Church is a worldwide community with over 1.2 billion members who adhere to a common creed. The Catholic Church is the one, holy, catholic and apostolic church of Catholic belief, seated in the Vatican and headed by Pope Francis (the “Church”).

9. The Code of Canon Law establishes the internal organizational structure and procedures to be followed within the Church. Canon Law was originally codified in 1917, and amended by Pope John Paul II on January 25, 1983. See 1983 Code of Canon Law c.1-1752 (1983) (“Canon Law”).

10. Canon Law also identifies property rights and agency relationships among the various structures within the community of the Church.

11. The Church is organized by territorial districts, the most common of which is a diocese. A diocese usually is defined by a geographic area and is created to serve the community of Latin Rite Catholics present in that area.

12. The bishop of a diocese is appointed by the Pope.

13. A parish is a certain community of the Christian faithful stably constituted in a particular place of worship, whose pastoral care is entrusted to a priest as its proper pastor under the authority of the diocesan bishop.

B. The Diocese

14. The Diocese is an incorporated legal entity formed pursuant to a Special Act of the New York Legislature with its own corporate structure and governance, separate from the Additional Stay Parties within its territory that are generally described below.

15. The juridic person of the Diocese of Rochester was canonically established on March 3, 1868. Thereafter, a corporation was formed on March 11, 1887 to constitute the Diocese of Rochester under New York law. The Certificate of Incorporation of the Diocese was amended in 1909 and 1967. The 1967 amendment provides that the three trustees of the Diocese are the Bishop, the Vicar-General and the Chancellor as required under Canon Law.

16. The Diocese serves a 12-county region in western New York. The territory of Diocese is co-extensive with the counties of Monroe, Wayne, Yates, Ontario, Cayuga, Seneca, Tompkins, Tioga, Chemung, Schuyler, Livingston, and Steuben in New York State.

17. The Diocese and the Additional Stay Parties within its territory serve approximately 300,000 Catholic individuals. The Bishop of the Diocese is The Most Reverend Salvatore R. Matano. Bishop Matano was installed as the Bishop of the Diocese on January 3, 2014.

C. Additional Stay Parties

18. The entities for which for which the Diocese is seeking relief as Additional Stay Parties are identified in Exhibit B and include Bishop Matano, parishes within the Diocese (including the approximately 86 currently active parishes and others that have been closed or merged with other parishes), independent Catholic schools, and other not-for-profit corporations that work to carry out various ministries of the Church within the territory of the Diocese.

D. The CVA Cases

19. On February 14, 2019, the State of New York enacted the New York Child Victim's Act which was codified in the New York Civil Practice Law & Rules at section 214-g (the "CVA"). As originally enacted, the CVA created a one-year window from August 14, 2019 to August 13, 2020 for the revival of previously time-barred civil claims related to childhood sexual abuse. That window was later extended for a second year through subsequent legislation to August 13, 2021.

20. As of the Petition Date, the Diocese had been named as a defendant in dozens of CVA Cases. The majority of those lawsuits also named one or more Additional Stay Parties as additional defendants.

21. The CVA Cases center on allegations by the CVA Claimants that the Diocese, as well as the Additional Stay Parties and certain priests, other individuals and/or other entities are liable under several theories for personal injuries allegedly arising from childhood sexual abuse claimed to have been committed by individuals employed by or under the supervision of the Diocese or other Additional Stay Parties.

22. As set forth in the CVA Cases, the CVA Claimants generally claim that the Diocese and/or the Additional Stay Parties are liable for the conduct of certain priests and other individuals based on their alleged actions and omissions in connection with employing and/or supervising the alleged abuse perpetrators.

23. The CVA Cases assert numerous causes of action including, without limitation, claims for negligence, gross negligence, breaches of fiduciary duties and fraud.

24. The core allegations in the CVA Cases are, for the most part, either (1) focused on the conduct of the Diocese, or (2) make no distinction between the conduct of the Diocese and the conduct of the Additional Stay Parties.

25. The CVA Claimants seek both compensatory and punitive damages against the Diocese as well as the Additional Stay Parties.

26. All or nearly all CVA Claimants have filed proofs of claim in the Diocese's Chapter 11 Case based upon substantially the same alleged facts and damages asserted in their CVA Cases.

27. Based on the foregoing, and as further discussed below, the Diocese is the real target defendant in the CVA Cases and moving forward with discovery proceedings and trials of such actions would force the Diocese to participate in each CVA Case to the detriment of its estate's assets and the reorganization process.

E. Status of the CVA Cases

28. As a result of the consensual stay that has been in place for nearly two years pursuant to the Stipulation and Order, the CVA Cases are still in pre-deposition written discovery and have not progressed to a point where they are ready for trial.

29. Through this Chapter 11 Case, the Diocese has produced to the Committee voluminous documents and information relating to the many abuse claims that have been asserted against it and the Additional Stay Parties. To date, this process has been conducted in an orderly fashion without the need for formal discovery. Without the stay of litigation provided by the Stipulation and Order, or by the injunctive relief sought by the Diocese in this adversary proceeding, the Diocese will likely be faced with hundreds of discovery requests from CVA Claimants. Moreover, because discovery efforts would no longer be coordinated through the Committee, it is likely that the Diocese and the Additional Stay Parties will be required to address simultaneous and duplicative discovery demands and subpoenas from multiple parties. The Diocese respectfully submits that engaging in discovery with individual CVA Claimants at this stage of the Chapter 11 Case will deplete assets of the estate and, while it may benefit certain CVA Claimants individually, it will not advance the overarching goal of a global settlement in this Chapter 11 Case for the benefit of all CVA Claimants.

F. The Diocese's Insurance Assets

30. The Diocese has joint policies of insurance covering itself and Additional Stay Parties dating back to at least 1952.

31. Beginning on or about June 1, 1977, and at all times thereafter, the Diocese has maintained a Protected Self-Insurance Program (the "PSIP") which provides comprehensive risk management services and insurance coverage for the Diocese and Additional Stay Parties. The Diocese implemented the PSIP as a means of ensuring adequate insurance protection at a reasonable price by spreading risk among a large pool of participants and leveraging their collective buying power to secure excess coverage at favorable rates.

32. Under the PSIP, the Diocese coordinates and administers an insurance program providing coverage for itself and Additional Stay Parties under several different policies obtained through third-party insurance carriers. The PSIP provides insurance coverage, subject to the applicable self-insured retention, deductible, and policy limits, for general liability, direct property loss, indirect property loss, short term disability, workers' compensation, boiler and machinery, sexual misconduct, fiduciary liability, cyber liability, terrorism liability, directors and officers, and excess liability. The applicable policy limits are inclusive of defense costs and the PSIP is responsible for funding any such costs until the applicable self-insured retention or deductible is met.

33. By order entered November 8, 2019, the Court authorized the Diocese to continue to maintain the PSIP during the Chapter 11 Case on a final basis and to pay claims, premiums, defense costs, obligations and administrative costs of the PSIP in the ordinary course of business consistent with its prepetition practices.

34. The costs of providing coverage under the PSIP are funded through annual assessments collected by the Diocese from Additional Stay Parties. Those funds are used to pay policy premiums to third-party carriers, to pay claims (including defense costs) up to the amount of any applicable deductible and/or stop loss limits, and to cover risk management expenses and other administrative costs and obligations related to maintaining the PSIP.

35. Despite the fact that the CVA Cases are automatically stayed against the Diocese, the Diocese is still responsible under the PSIP to pay defense costs for the Additional Stay Parties, subject to the applicable self-insured retention or deductible.

G. Impact of Pending CVA Cases on the Diocese

36. Litigating the CVA Cases during this critical stage of the Chapter 11 Case will be burdensome and time consuming and will disrupt and delay the ongoing mediation and negotiations toward a plan of reorganization for the Diocese, to the detriment of all creditors.

37. In the event CVA Claimants are allowed to resume prosecution of the CVA Cases against the Additional Stay Parties, the Diocese will be required to expend time and money responding to the CVA Cases both in its capacity as the insurance coordinator for the PSIP and simply to protect the Diocese's own legal interests which could be jeopardized by the CVA Cases.

38. Each of the Additional Stay Parties has the same rights as the Diocese to coverage under all insurance policies on which they are co-insureds. Accordingly, the applicable policy limits, and the PSIP funds available to fund self-insured retentions, deductibles and defense costs, are shared between the Diocese and the Additional Stay Parties.

39. The funds the Diocese holds to administer the PSIP are finite, as is the amount of occurrence-based insurance coverage available to the Diocese and the Additional Stay Parties with respect to each instance of abuse for which coverage is sought.

40. To the extent the CVA Cases are allowed to resume while the Chapter 11 Case continues, the Diocese will be required to expend PSIP funds to pay defense costs. Accordingly, litigation of the CVA Cases against the Additional Stay Parties will have an immediate adverse economic consequence for the Diocese's estate.

41. Moreover, with respect to any CVA Case which is successfully prosecuted against an Additional Stay Party, the CVA Claimant(s) undoubtedly will look directly to any shared insurance to satisfy any judgment, thereby depleting, dollar-for-dollar, proceeds which would otherwise be available to the Diocese's bankruptcy estate. Furthermore, some shared insurance policies have so-called "wasting" limits, which are depleted by the payment of defense costs. Such limits may be reduced or even exhausted by defense costs incurred by Additional Stay Parties, leaving little or no funds available to pay any liabilities of the Diocese. Accordingly, continuation of the CVA Cases against the Additional Stay Parties will have an adverse consequence on the insurance coverage available to the Diocese's estate.

42. Notwithstanding the Diocese's obligations under the PSIP to provide a defense to the Additional Stay Parties with respect to the CVA Cases, the Diocese would be required to monitor and participate in the CVA Cases because the claims asserted against Additional Stay Parties are so closely intertwined with the claims asserted against the Diocese that the Diocese may be exposed to collateral estoppel, adverse precedent, vicarious liability, or imputed admissions if the litigation continues. Accordingly, the Diocese will have no choice but to participate in the CVA Cases, thus diverting significant resources from the mediation and negotiation of a plan of reorganization and vitiating the efficacy of the automatic stay.

43. Because of the tremendous costs of litigation and defending the numerous CVA Cases, prosecution of the CVA Cases will substantially dissipate the assets of the Diocese's estate to the detriment of all creditors.

44. Litigation of the CVA Cases will divert critical resources away and likely distract key personnel and advisors from focusing on the Diocese's efforts to advance negotiations with respect to a comprehensive chapter 11 plan.

45. Key diocesan personnel have been, and continue to expend time (i) consulting with various professionals engaged by the Diocese in connection with the bankruptcy case, (ii) evaluating strategic considerations and alternatives for restructuring the Diocese's liabilities, (iii) Participating in mediation sessions and other negotiations with the goal of achieving a global settlement to be implemented through a chapter 11 plan, (iv) working with counsel to develop key terms for a plan of reorganization; and (v) consulting on a regular basis with other Diocesan personnel and clergy to keep them apprised of developments in this Chapter 11 Case and the impact of such developments on the Church's mission and operations. The success of the Diocese's reorganization efforts will, in large part, be reliant on the time and efforts that these key personnel are able to expend toward ensuring a successful reorganization of the Diocese.

46. However, should the CVA Cases move forward, these key individuals would be consumed with responses to discovery demands in the more than 450 pending CVA Cases. The Diocese will also be required to actively participate in the defense of the Additional Stay Parties during the pendency of the bankruptcy case and key individuals will likely be called upon to appear as deposition and/or trial witnesses. The Diocese's reorganization efforts and its estate will suffer real and substantial harm to the detriment of all creditors if these key individuals are required to actively participate in hundreds of individual CVA Cases instead of concentrating their efforts on the successful resolution of this Chapter 11 Case.

47. Should the CVA Cases be allowed to continue, the Diocese and its estate will face potential contribution liability, indemnification obligations and collateral estoppel issues, which will effectively compel the Diocese to monitor and participate in the numerous trials of the CVA Cases. Further, the continuation of the CVA Cases will dissipate PSIP funds which would otherwise be available to satisfy Diocesan liabilities. As a result of the Diocese's potential contribution and indemnification obligations, and its obligations under the PSIP, any monetary awards the Additional Stay Parties pay to the CVA Claimants, or defense costs incurred in connection with the CVA Cases, will result in a dissipation of the PSIP and/or consume other insurance assets of the Diocese's bankruptcy estate to the detriment of all parties in interest.

48. Adverse rulings or findings in any CVA Case could also help insurers establish defenses to coverage, thus potentially reducing the availability of insurance with respect to claims asserted both against the Diocese and in other CVA Cases.

49. The Additional Stay Parties and the Diocese's insurers will also have no incentive to meaningfully commit to contributing to the Diocese's plan of reorganization while litigation in the CVA Cases continues to threaten them with liability for the same claims the Diocese seeks to address in this Chapter 11 Case.

50. This adversary proceeding is brought to stay or otherwise enjoin the continued prosecution of the CVA Cases. In particular, the Diocese seeks a declaratory judgment, pursuant to sections 105(a) and 362 of the Bankruptcy Code, that the automatic stay enjoins any further prosecution of the CVA Cases until at least ninety (90) days following the effective date of a confirmed plan of reorganization for the Diocese (the “Stay Period”).

51. In the alternative, the Diocese seeks injunctive relief pursuant to sections 105(a) and 362 of the Bankruptcy Code and/or Rule 7065 of the Federal Rules of Bankruptcy Procedure, enjoining the continued prosecution of the CVA Cases as against the Diocese and the Additional Stay Parties for the duration of the Stay Period.

52. The relief requested is necessary to ensure that the purposes of the automatic stay imposed by section 362 of the Bankruptcy Code will not be frustrated by: (a) causing irreparable harm by disrupting the administration and reorganization of the Diocese’s estate to the detriment of all creditors; (b) subjecting the Diocese to the risk of collateral estoppel and to a diminution of the Diocese’s estate’s assets; (c) forcing the Diocese to participate as the real party in interest if the Court allows the continued prosecution of the CVA Cases as against the Additional Stay Parties; and (e) unnecessarily depleting the assets of the Diocese’s estate to the detriment of all creditors. The relief requested will also promote an expedient and equitable resolution of all claims against both the Diocese and the Additional Stay Parties.

53. Pursuant to section 362 of the Bankruptcy Code, the CVA Cases and all actions against the Diocese were automatically stayed upon the filing of this Chapter 11 Case. While the automatic stay clearly enjoins the CVA Cases as to the Diocese, pursuant to section 362(a)(1), (3) and (6) it also stays the CVA Cases as against the Additional Stay Parties.

Count I

Confirming the Applicability of The Automatic Stay (Declaratory Relief)

54. The Diocese restates and realleges paragraphs 1 to 53 above as though fully set forth herein.

55. This Court has the power, pursuant to 11 U.S.C. § 105(a), to issue any order, process or judgment that is necessary or appropriate to carry out the provisions of the Bankruptcy Code.

56. Section 362(a)(3) of the Bankruptcy Code prohibits the commencement or continuation of any act to obtain possession or exercise control over the property of a debtor's estate. Continued prosecution of the CVA Cases will deplete insurance coverage for the Diocese's estate through payment of defense costs and losses incurred by certain Additional Stay Parties. Since the insurance proceeds are property of the Diocese's estate, the continuation of the CVA Cases will have irreparable negative impact on the property of its estate.

57. Sections 362(a)(1) and (6) of the Bankruptcy Code also prohibit the commencement or continuation of any actions against a debtor that were or could have been commenced prior to the bankruptcy filing, or which seek to recover for any claim that arose prior to the commencement of the bankruptcy case.

58. The Diocese is the main target of the CVA Cases and therefore is, in fact, the real party in interest to the litigation.

59. Moreover, given the nature of the factual allegations and claims contained in the CVA Complaints, the Diocese will be forced to appear and defend against the claims in order to protect its own interests.

60. The CVA Cases expose the Diocese to potential indemnification obligations as well as the threat of vicarious liability, adverse precedent, collateral estoppel and imputed admissions.

61. Thus, the Diocese's failure to intervene, appear, and defend itself in each of the CVA Cases could have irreparable adverse consequences on the Diocese's estate.

62. The prosecution of the CVA Cases will also require the Diocese, which has limited administrative and financial resources, to engage in extensive, time consuming and costly preparation for, and participation in, the discovery proceedings and trials of all CVA Cases.

63. Thus, prosecution of such actions will cause irreparable harm to the Diocese's ability to reorganize by distracting key personnel and depleting assets of its estate.

64. The prosecution of the CVA Cases is an act to collect, assess or recover a prepetition claim against the Diocese in violation of section 362(a)(6) of the Bankruptcy Code.

65. The automatic stay provisions imposed by section 362(a) of the Bankruptcy Code extend, or should be extended, to prevent the prosecution of the CVA Cases with respect to the Additional Stay Parties, insofar as each matter, in effect, amounts to an action against the Diocese and, moreover, is ultimately an act to obtain possession of property from the Diocese's estate or to recover a prepetition claim against the Diocese.

66. If the automatic stay is not extended to stay the CVA Cases with regard to the claims against the Additional Stay Parties, or if such actions are not otherwise enjoined, the Diocese and its estate will be irreparably harmed and the purposes and policies of the Bankruptcy Code will be frustrated because, among other reasons:

- a. the prosecution of the CVA Cases would violate section 362(a) of the Bankruptcy Code by depleting the Diocese's insurance coverage, thus causing irreparable adverse impact on the estate to the detriment of creditors generally;
- b. the Diocese could be subject to substantial and prejudicial collateral estoppel risks, which will effectively compel the Diocese to monitor, intervene, and participate in the CVA Cases, including engaging in extensive trial preparation, resulting in substantial costs to the Diocese's estate and irreparable harm to its ability to reorganize by distracting key personnel who are needed to participate in the Diocese's reorganization process; and

- c. judgments against the Additional Stay Parties in the CVA Cases could increase the likelihood of a judgment against the Diocese — not only because of the collateral estoppel issues, adverse precedent and vicarious liability but also because the Additional Stay Parties could assert claims for contribution and indemnification against the Diocese and the Diocese could potentially have to indemnify certain Additional Stay Parties pursuant to agency principles.

67. There exists a substantial controversy between the Diocese and the CVA Claimants of sufficient immediacy and reality to warrant the issuance of a declaratory judgment under 28 U.S.C. § 2201. A prompt judicial determination of the respective rights and duties of the parties in these respects is necessary and appropriate.

Count II

Enjoining the CVA Cases Pursuant to 11 U.S.C. § 105(a) or, Alternatively, Rule 7065 of the Federal Rules of Bankruptcy Procedure (Injunctive Relief)

68. Plaintiff restates and realleges paragraphs 1 to 67 above as though fully set forth herein.

69. The Court has the power to the stay the CVA Cases under section 105(a) of the Bankruptcy Code which provides, in relevant part, that the Court may “issue any order, process, or judgment that is necessary or appropriate to carry out the provisions of this title.” 11 U.S.C. § 105(a). The authority granted by section 105(a) of the Bankruptcy Code permits bankruptcy courts to issue injunctive relief where parties are pursuing actions pending in other courts that threaten the integrity of a bankrupt's estate.

70. Courts construe section 105(a) liberally to enjoin suits that might impede the reorganization process without proof of all four factors normally required for preliminary injunctions under Rule 65 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure made applicable herein by Rule 7065 of the Federal Rules of Bankruptcy procedure.

71. Nonetheless, a preliminary injunction enjoining the prosecution of the CVA Cases against the additional stay parties is justified under the four-factor inquiry governing the entry of a preliminary injunction under Rule 65 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure made applicable herein by Rule 7065 of the Federal Rules of Bankruptcy procedure:

- a. the likelihood of the debtor's success on the merits;
- b. whether the debtor will suffer irreparable injury without the injunction;
- c. the harm to others which will occur if the injunction is granted; and
- d. whether the injunction would serve the public interest.

72. Here, for the reasons discussed herein, all factors weigh heavily in favor of this Court issuing an injunction pursuant to section 105(a) of the Bankruptcy Code.

73. First, with respect to a likelihood of success on the merits, bankruptcy courts have interpreted this factor to mean a probability of a successful reorganization in bankruptcy. The Diocese is likely to achieve that goal. Although the Diocese, its insurers, and the Committee and its constituency of abuse claimants may differ on issues of liability and claim value, it is beyond reasonable dispute that it is in the best interest of all involved, as well as the larger Catholic community of Western New York, for the Diocese to successfully reorganize pursuant to a chapter 11 plan that addresses and resolves all abuse claims on a global basis. Accordingly, there is every reason to expect that the Diocese will successfully reorganize. Indeed, the parties have been, and continue to engage in, active mediation and negotiation with the assistance of Judge Zive to accomplish that collective goal.

74. Second, the Diocese will suffer irreparable harm without the issuance of an injunction. Injunctions against the continuance of civil actions are appropriate under section 105 of the Bankruptcy Code when the burden is such that there is a risk of interference with the debtor's plan of reorganization. The CVA Cases expose the Diocese to claims for contribution, possible claims for indemnification, as well as threats of vicarious liability, collateral estoppel and imputed liability. As such, litigation of the CVA Cases will force the Diocese to intervene, appear, and defend against each of the CVA Cases as if it were the named defendant, causing a dissipation of the estate's assets. Moreover, the CVA Cases will dissipate the assets of the Diocese's estate in the form of insurance payments for defense costs and losses incurred by the Additional Stay Parties, and will distract key Diocese personnel who are necessary for an orderly reorganization.

75. Allowing putative creditors to cause the dissipation of assets of the Diocese's estate, or to recover against property of the estate outside of a court-supervised reorganization, would eviscerate the fundamental Bankruptcy Code policy of requiring similarly situated creditors to be treated equally through a court-supervised process, and lead to a race to the courthouse by CVA Claimants.

76. Third, the balance of the harms weighs heavily in favor of this Court issuing an injunction enjoining prosecution of the CVA Cases. As stated above, the Diocese will suffer immediate, significant harm to its ability to reorganize and diminution of its estate's assets should the CVA Cases proceed during the course of the Chapter 11 Case. On the other hand, the CVA Claimants will suffer little or no harm if an injunction is granted since the injunction will do nothing more than preserve the status quo as it has been since the parties agreed to stay litigation through entry of the Stipulation and Order in early 2020. An injunction will not prevent the CVA Claimants from asserting their respective claims; rather, it will merely postpone the prosecution of such claims for the duration of the Stay Period in aid of the Diocese's efforts to achieve a global compromise in this Chapter 11 Case.

77. Fourth, granting an injunction will serve the public interest by maintaining a single forum to address the claims of all creditors, facilitating the successful reorganization of the Diocese, and expediting administration of its estate. A stay of or injunction against the prosecution of the CVA Cases will enable the Diocese to maximize the value of its estate for the benefit of all creditors and to distribute those assets in accordance with the statutory mandate of the Bankruptcy Code while also addressing the CVA Claimant's claims against the Additional Stay Parties as part of a global resolution of all abuse claims.

78. Absent immediate injunctive relief staying the CVA Cases as against the Additional Stay Parties, the Diocese's estate and its creditors will suffer irreparable harm and the Diocese's Chapter 11 Case could be thrown into disarray.

Prayer For Relief

WHEREFORE, the Diocese respectfully prays for judgment as follows:

a. for a declaration that the CVA Cases, as those actions relate to the Additional Stay Parties, should be and are stayed pursuant to section 362(a) of the Bankruptcy Code for the duration of the Stay Period; or

b. alternatively, for an injunction pursuant to sections 105(a) and 362(a) of the Bankruptcy Code barring the prosecution of the CVA Cases, or the commencement of any action or proceeding of any nature whatsoever by the CVA Claimants or otherwise based on allegations substantially similar to any set forth in the CVA Complaints, as against the Diocese and the Additional Stay Parties for the duration of the Stay Period; or

c. alternatively, for a preliminary injunction, pursuant to Bankruptcy Rule 7065, barring the prosecution of the CVA Cases, or the commencement of any action or proceeding of any nature whatsoever by the CVA Claimants or otherwise based on allegations substantially similar to those set forth in the CVA Complaints, as against the Diocese and the Additional Stay Parties for the duration of the Stay Period; and

d. for such other and further legal and equitable relief as this Court deems just and proper.
